CHICAGO WHITE SOX CHARITIES

Since its creation in 1990, Chicago White Sox Charities has donated nearly $2 million to benefit cancer research and treatment, youth education and services, and senior citizen programs.

During 1994, Chicago White Sox Charities extended its efforts to bring enjoyment to Chicago's youth with the gift of baseball — to give back to the game — and continued its pursuit of helping nurture the quality of education at many Chicago public schools.

*"YOUTH SERVICES AND EDUCATION
ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT GOALS
OF CHICAGO WHITE SOX CHARITIES."*

*Jerry Reinsdorf
White Sox Chairman*

A contribution of $1 million, the largest single donation in the history of Chicago White Sox Charities, was pledged to the Chicago Park District to help renovate the nearly 800 baseball and softball fields throughout the city. White Sox groundskeeper Roger Bossard serves as consultant on the renovations and conducted training seminars for park staff to ensure proper maintenance as the diamonds are reconstructed.

Because the best way to appreciate something is to experience it, Chicago White Sox Charities co-sponsors a new Inner City Little League, involving more than 200 boys and girls from 15 Chicago Housing Authority communities.

The league, formed in 1993 by the Chicago Police Department's Public Housing Unit, plays its games on several of the recently renovated Park District fields. As a co-sponsor, Chicago White Sox Charities funds the cost of uniforms, hats, umpires and transportation to and from the games.

Jerry Reinsdorf visits Children's Memorial Medical Center.

Chicago White Sox Charities committed to five Chicago public schools in 1994 with a three-year $250,000 pledge to help continue the Direct Instruction (DI) reading program that was initiated in 1993.

Direct Instruction, a phonics-based reading program developed more than 20 years ago at the University of Illinois, has been tested in more than a dozen comparative studies, with DI students consistently outperforming their peers.

Ron Schueler, White Sox senior vice president of major league operations, throws out a ceremonial first pitch on Opening Day for the Inner City Little League, co-sponsored by Chicago White Sox Charities.

"Youth services and education are the most important goals of Chicago White Sox Charities," said Jerry Reinsdorf, White Sox chairman. "Improving the fields and funding the Little League allows thousands of children the opportunity to enjoy a safe and wonderful activity, away from the sometimes negative city environment. By funding the Direct Instruction program in Chicago schools, we hope to improve the quality of education for children who might otherwise fall through the cracks."

Some of the other benefactors of Chicago White Sox Charities during 1994 included Special Children's Charities, Infant Welfare Society, Mercy Home for Boys and Girls and the cancer programs at Children's Memorial Medical Center and Northwestern Memorial Hospital.

Chicago White Sox Charities raises money by creating distinctive fund-raising events, such as the annual Comiskey Park Garage Sale of White Sox memorabilia and the summer "Picnic in the Park"

Comiskey Park's Hall of Fame is one of many fan services which has helped Chicago White Sox Charities raise more than $2 million since 1990.

celebration. Funding also is provided through many fan services, including Behind-the-Scenes Tours of Comiskey Park, admissions from the team's Hall of Fame exhibit and the fees charged to fans for the purchase of special scoreboard messages.

OFFICERS

JERRY REINSDORF

Chairman

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Jerry Reinsdorf has been increasingly active in the affairs of baseball. He currently is serving a third four-year term on Major League Baseball's prestigious Executive Council. Reinsdorf also served a four-year term as chairman of baseball's Ownership Committee and was a member of the board of directors of the Player Relations Committee, Inc. for seven years. He remains a member of the Ownership Committee and serves as chairman of the Equal Opportunity Committee. Reinsdorf is also a member of the Restructuring and Legislative Affairs committees and was a member of the American League Presidential Search Committee, which named Gene Budig in June 1994.

During Reinsdorf's 14 seasons as chairman of the White Sox, the club has captured American League division titles twice, in 1983 and again in 1993. In 1994, the White Sox led the American League Central when a strike by the Major League Baseball Players Association prematurely ended the season. The White Sox are the only team in Major League Baseball to post winning records in each of the last five seasons.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in the professional sports world in February 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls, the team has brought three consecutive World Championships to Chicago beginning in 1991. In addition to initiating the building of new Comiskey Park, Reinsdorf has spearheaded construction of two major facilities for the Bulls. The United Center, new home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season and the Bulls began using the Berto Center, their state-of-the-art training facility, in 1992.

In December 1987, Reinsdorf completed employment as chairman of the board of a real estate investment firm he co-founded in the early 1970s. Currently, he is a partner in Bojer Financial, Ltd., a land investment company.

Reinsdorf's many contributions to the community have been recognized by such organizations as the Interfaith Organizing Project, the American Academy of Achievement, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Trial Lawyers Club of Chicago, the Chicago Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame and the National Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame. In addition, he is the recipient of the Chicago Park District's 1990 Chicagoan of the Year Award, the 1992 PUSH Bridgebuilder Award, the National Italian-American Friendship Award and Northwestern University's Award of Merit. Reinsdorf was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor in 1993 for contributing to national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of our ancestors. As chairman of the Chicago White Sox, he was instrumental in initiating Chicago White Sox Charities, the newest arm of the baseball organization that raises funds for cancer research, children's and senior programs. Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities has conferred its Hallmark Award to Reinsdorf in recognition of his efforts.

In addition to his sports interests, Reinsdorf is an attorney, a certified public accountant, a specialist in real estate securities, a registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser. He is a former member of the board of directors of Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc. and the Northwestern University Law School Alumni Association, and is presently a trustee of Northwestern University and the the Illinois Institute of Technology. He also has served on the boards of numerous other corporations and charities.

Born in Brooklyn, New York on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children: David, Susan, Michael and Jonathan and four grandchildren: Bryan, Melissa, Max and Jennifer.

EDDIE EINHORN

Vice Chairman

Eddie Einhorn begins his fifth year as vice chairman of the White Sox, continuing his involvement with Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf while also devoting time to his sports and television interests. Prior to becoming vice chairman, Einhorn was the club's president and chief operating officer for 10 years.

Einhorn was one of the key architects of The Baseball Network, Major League Baseball's joint broadcasting venture with ABC and NBC. He is a member of Major League Baseball's Schedule Format Committee, the Professional Baseball Association Committee and was named to the three-member Television Committee in September 1992. In 1989, Einhorn was appointed television consultant to the United States Olympic Committee and was responsible for a 200-hour Olympic television package that debuted in 1990. He is also television consultant to the International Skating Union, governing body of all world ice skating, the U.S. Figure Skating Association and the U.S. Gymnastics Federation. Einhorn also serves on the board of directors of the Chicago Bulls.

Recognized as the architect of baseball's first billion dollar-plus television contract, Einhorn was instrumental in negotiating the 1990 deal with CBS-TV and ESPN. Einhorn is also the senior American League representative on the Player Development Negotiating Committee.

Prior to joining law school classmate Jerry Reinsdorf in 1981 to head the limited partnership to purchase the White Sox, Einhorn was the executive producer of the "CBS Sports Spectacular." At CBS, he was responsible for over 200 hours of programming per year and won an Emmy Award for the "The Gossamer Albatross, Flight of Imagination" in 1980. Einhorn was the founder and chairman of TVS Television Network, the leading syndicator of sports programming in the 1970s, which helped give rise to the popularity of college basketball on television.

Einhorn was born on January 3, 1936 in Paterson, New Jersey and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Einhorn and his wife, Ann, have two children: Jennifer (1/2/72) and Jeffrey (9/26/74).

HOWARD PIZER

Executive Vice President

Howard Pizer has primary responsibility for White Sox business and administrative operations, as well as the club's legal matters. The long-time business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create the new Comiskey Park. He is using this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, the new state-of-the-art facility which opened in time for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons.

Pizer sets organization-wide administrative policies and procedures, established uniformity in corporate-wide computerization and was instrumental in initiating an employee relations program. He is also responsible for the overall relationship between Illinois Sportservice, the White Sox concessionaire, and Levy Restaurants in conjunction with the operation of The Stadium Club and Diamond Suites.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the boards of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities and Special Children's Charities, the fund-raising arm of Chicago Special Olympics. He is a member of the board of the Near West Side Development Corp., which is working to spur economic development on Chicago's near west side. Pizer was also instrumental in instituting the White Sox's newest venture, Chicago White Sox Charities, where he serves as vice president and secretary.

Born on October 23, 1941 in Chicago, Illinois, Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline (4/5/68) and Rachel (4/28/71).

RON SCHUELER

Senior Vice President, Major League Operations

Ron Schueler begins his fifth season as senior vice president of major league operations, making him the sixth ranking American League general manager in terms of tenure. Over the past two seasons, the White Sox won the American League West title, their first in a decade, and recorded the best winning percentage in the American League Central in 1994.

In Schueler's four seasons, the White Sox have posted a .558 winning percentage (334-265), including a 67-46 record in last year's strike-shortened season. Schueler brings 15 years of off-field baseball experience and an additional 13 years of playing service to the White Sox. In the four years prior to joining the Sox, Schueler served as special assistant to Sandy Alderson, the Oakland Athletics' vice president of baseball operations, where he was responsible for evaluating both professional and amateur baseball talent.

A former major-league pitcher, Schueler has watched top pitching prospects like Wilson Alvarez, Jason Bere and Alex Fernandez mature into a staff that has led the American League in ERA in each of the past two seasons. Schueler has also been responsible for acquiring veterans Jim Abbott (1995), Ellis Burks (1993), Mike Devereaux (1995), Julio Franco (1994), Charlie Hough (1991-92), Darrin Jackson (1994), Dave Martinez (1995), Kirk McCaskill (1992-present), Tim Lincecum (1991-present) and Chris Sabo (1995) as either short-term or long-term contributors.

During his first season, the White Sox drew nearly 3 million fans to brand-new Comiskey Park as the club recorded its second straight runner-up finish in the American League West with an 87-75 mark. Prior to his second season, Schueler hired Gene Lamont as manager on November 26, 1991. The Sox went on to finish third in the American League West in Lamont's first season and were 10 games over .500 at 86-76. In 1993, the Sox captured their first division title since 1983 with a 94-68 record.

The 6-4 right-hander compiled a 40-48 record in eight major-league seasons with Atlanta (1972-73), Philadelphia (1974-76), Minnesota (1977) and the White Sox (1978-79), after being selected by Atlanta in the third round (secondary phase) of the January 1967 free agent draft.

He ended his playing career with the White Sox in June 1979 and was hired as pitching coach (1979-81) by Sox manager Don Kessinger to replace Fred Martin. Schueler joined the Oakland staff and served as pitching coach from 1982-84. He held the same duties for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986 before to joining the A's front office.

Schueler was born on April 18, 1948 in Hays, Kansas. A graduate of Hays High School, he attended Fort Hays State College prior to being drafted. Schueler has two children: Kacey (7/21/73), who plays basketball at the University of Illinois-Chicago, and Carey (4/25/75), who plays basketball at DePaul University.

ROB GALLAS

Senior Vice President, Marketing & Broadcasting

Rob Gallas joined the White Sox in September 1989 at a pivotal point in the club's 80-year history. He was given the dual challenge of closing old Comiskey Park while generating excitement for the club's new home across the street.

Gallas has drawn on his customer-oriented background and genuine love of baseball in creating and developing marketing and promotional programs for the White Sox. From the nostalgic "Turn Back the Clock" promotion and historic montage display of the 80-year Comiskey Park history during the final 1990 season, to creating a Hall of Fame and offering tributes to women in baseball and members of the former Negro Leagues, Sox marketing efforts have focused on reminding old and new fans of the treasures of baseball.

The White Sox logo and uniforms, unveiled at the end of the 1990 season, have moved the Sox to the top of Major League Baseball in merchandise sales in each of the last four years. At the same time, a strong effort is being made to keep fans in touch with players through events like SoxFest, White Sox Day at Taste of Chicago and the winter caravan tour, while "giving back" to the Chicago metropolitan area through Chicago White Sox Charities and the Sox community relations efforts.

Since Gallas joined the White Sox, the club has broken all-time attendance records. The Sox have attracted 9,893,799 fans since opening Comiskey Park in 1991, just short of 10 million. In recognition of the marketing department's effort, Gallas was one of only three sports executives selected by Advertising Age magazine for its 1992 "Marketing 100" list, which honored programs that "stand for the very best in brand building."

Gallas began his career as a news and sportswriter with newspapers in the Midwest, including a stint from 1976 to 1983 as the White Sox beat writer for the Chicago suburban Daily Herald newspaper chain. He received the Jacob Scher award for investigative reporting in 1975 and in 1980 captured UPI's Illinois Newspapers Best Sportswriting Award. In 1981, he became the first non-Chicago writer to become chairman of the Chicago Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Before joining the White Sox, he held the position of group manager of marketing communications and services for a division of Baxter Healthcare Corporation.

Gallas was born in Chicago, Illinois on January 4, 1951 and grew up in Michigan City, Indiana. A 1973 graduate of the University of Evansville (Indiana), Gallas and his wife, Sharon, have two children: Christopher (3/8/71), who is director of marketing and media relations for the Class A Hickory Crawdads, and Jennifer (2/4/74), a student at Indiana University. The Gallas family resides in Palatine, Illinois.

JACK GOULD

Senior Vice President, Baseball

Jack Gould joined the White Sox as an investor in 1975 during Bill Veeck's second tenure with the club. He assumed his current role as senior vice president of baseball in 1981 with the Reinsdorf-Einhorn ownership group. Gould is one of four original members of the Sox board of directors remaining on the board.

Under Gould's direction, the White Sox began computerizing the gathering of statistical data during the 1981 season, bringing the club into the forefront of the industry by making baseball decisions based on computer-generated data. He also has overseen the research involved in preparing for potential arbitration cases.

As a bomber pilot for the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II, Gould flew on 35 combat missions in Europe and received several decorations, including the distinguished Flying Cross. Lieutenant colonel and actor Jimmy Stewart was second in command of Gould's wing. After leaving the military, Gould ran his own mortgage banking firm for 25 years. He is an advocate of youth baseball and served in various administrative capacities for Colt League Baseball in the northern suburbs of Chicago, including coaching duties.

Gould was born in Chicago, Illinois and is a graduate of Chicago's Von Steuben High School and the University of Illinois, where he received a bachelor's degree in accounting. He and his wife, Nancy, have a son Larry (7/24/57).

TIM BUZARD

Vice President, Finance

As vice president of finance for the White Sox, Tim Buzard is directly responsible for the club's accounting, ticket office, human resources and data processing departments. After assuming this position in 1985, he initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Buzard spent much of the 1993 season working as a member of Major League Baseball's Chief Financial Officers' Committee studying revenue sharing. He has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign and a new human resources department with the White Sox, including the implementation of a flexible benefits and 401(k) program.

Prior to his promotion to vice president of finance, Buzard served as controller for five years. Upon his arrival in 1981, his top priority was developing a detailed budget and long-term accounting plan. He initiated the automation of the accounting department and assisted in an organization-wide computerization project.

Buzard holds an accounting degree from the University of Illinois and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox.

Buzard was born on September 13, 1955 in Evanston, Illinois. A 1978 graduate of the University of Illinois, Buzard and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline (11/11/84) and Kevin (3/21/89). The Buzard family resides in Highland Park, Illinois.

TERRY SAVARISE

Vice President, Stadium Operations

As vice president of stadium operations, Terry Savarise is directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of the ballpark, including the over 2,000 employees that staff Comiskey Park on game days. He was also responsible for the planning and construction of new Comiskey Park. Savarise handled the layout and design of all aspects of the ballpark, including the state-of-the-art features in the Diamond Suites, The Stadium Club, press box and clubhouses.

Entering his 14th season with the White Sox, Savarise also serves as senior vice president of stadium operations for the United Center, the multipurpose arena that serves as the new home of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks. Savarise handled all design and construction aspects of the state-of-the-art multipurpose arena. Savarise also worked closely with the city of Sarasota, Florida in the design and construction of Ed Smith Stadium and Sports Complex, which opened as the club's spring training and minor-league headquarters in February 1989. In addition, he provided assistance in the development of the new L.P. Frans Stadium, home of the White Sox's Class A affiliate in Hickory, North Carolina.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Savarise served an internship with the Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association in their All-Star Game season of 1980-81. He is an active member of the Stadium Managers' Association, Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers.

Savarise was born on November 20, 1959 and was raised in Ashtabula, Ohio. He is a 1981 graduate of Ohio University with bachelor's degrees in accounting and business law, followed by a master's degree in sports administration later that year. Savarise and his wife, Tara, have two children: Katie (9/10/88) and Jonathan (7/8/93).

LARRY MONROE

*Vice President, Free Agent
& Major League Scouting*

Larry Monroe, vice president of scouting and minor league operations since November 1990, acquired new duties as vice president of free agent and major league scouting on October 10, 1994. A former right-handed pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, Monroe brings 20 years of experience in the White Sox organization as a player, scout, minor-league instructor and coach. He served as both a special assistant to the general manager and major-league scout before taking over vice president duties.

Monroe will enhance the Sox's scouting efforts during the season and his experience will allow him to assist Ron Schueler, senior vice president of major league operations, in evaluating potential player moves.

A graduate of Forest View High School in Arlington Heights, Illinois, Monroe received all-conference baseball honors three times and all-area baseball honors twice. He was the White Sox's No. 1 selection in the June 1974 free agent draft and made his major-league debut with the White Sox on August 23, 1976 in Detroit, where he pitched two scoreless, hitless innings.

Monroe was born on June 20, 1956 in Detroit, Michigan. He has three children: Taylor (10/14/83), Allison (3/13/85) and Grant (9/29/88).

White Sox Since 1990

The White Sox are the only major-league team to finish above .500 in each of the last five seasons and have gone 428-333 (.562) since 1990, the best record in the American League and the second-best in the majors. The Atlanta Braves are 429-333 (.563) since 1990 and own the best record in the majors over that span. The last time the Sox posted a winning record in five consecutive seasons was a 17-year run from 1951-67.

Fewest Fielding Chances By A Sox First Baseman

On April 27, 1930, Sox firstbaseman John "Bud" Clancy played the entire game at St. Louis without a putout or an assist. He shares the American League record for fewest fielding chances at first base in a nine inning game with Oakland's Gene Tenace, who equaled Clancy on September 1, 1974.

Nellie Fox And Baseball's Hall Of Fame

Nellie Fox and Pie Traynor, who both fell two votes short, hold the distinction of coming closest to being elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame. Fox gathered 295 of 395 votes in 1985, and Traynor 119 of 161 in 1947 (he was elected the next year). Of the players who came within 14 votes of election, only Fox, Jim Bunning and Orlando Cepeda have not been elected by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Batting .300 With 25 Home Runs

Frank Thomas is just the second player in White Sox history to bat over .300 and hit 25-plus home runs multiple times in his career. Thomas has accomplished the feat in 1991 (.318, 32), 1993 (.317, 41) and again in 1994 (.353, 38). Dick Allen also achieved those levels twice (1972 and 1974). Harold Baines (1984) and Zeke Bonura (1934) each accomplished it once in their careers.

— Selected by the White Sox in first round (seventh overall) of free agent draft (6/5/89).

Thomas Joins Ted Williams And Lou Gehrig

Despite appearing in just 113 games because of the Players Association strike, Frank Thomas became only the third player in major-league history to bat .300 with 20 or more home runs and 100 RBI, 100 walks and 100 runs scored in four consecutive seasons ... Thomas is the first to reach those levels in each of his first four full years ... the other two players to accomplish the feat over four seasons are Hall of Famers Ted Williams (1946-49) and Lou Gehrig (twice, 1929-32, 1934-37) ... Thomas over the four years:

Frank Thomas Facts

1994 Accomplishments

- ◆ Became the first player in White Sox history to lead the team in the Triple Crown categories three different seasons. Thomas has led the Sox in batting average, home runs and RBI in 1991, 1993 and 1994.
- ◆ His 38 home runs were the second-highest single-season total in franchise history.
- ◆ Reached base safely in 104 of 113 games this season (92.0 percent).
- ◆ Hit in 89 of 113 games (78.8 percent).
- ◆ 73 of his 141 hits (51.8 percent) went for extra bases, the best percentage in franchise history.
- ◆ Has 23 first-inning home runs over the last two seasons, 15 in 1993 and eight in 1994.
- ◆ Posted a season-long 15-game hitting streak from 5/20-6/7 (.490, 24-49).
- ◆ Scored at least one run in 14 consecutive games (4/4-19).
- ◆ Reached base safely in 30 consecutive games (5/1-6/8).
- ◆ His longest stretch of the season without a hit was nine at-bats (6/7-9).
- ◆ Led the American League in seven offensive categories at the All-Star Break (batting average, runs, walks, on-base percentage, slugging, total bases and extra-base hits).
- ◆ Named AL Player of the Month for the fourth time in his career in May and the fifth time in July.
- ◆ Named AL Player of the Week on 5/31 (sixth time in career) and 7/11 (seventh time).

All-Star Facts

- ◆ Named to the All-Star Team for the second time in his career (also in 1993). Went 2-2 with an RBI and a run scored. Has reached safely in all four All-Star Game plate appearances.
- ◆ Was the top vote-getter among AL first basemen.
- ◆ Was the first White Sox starter in an All-Star Game since Harold Baines (DH in 1989) and first voted starter since Carlton Fisk (C in 1985). Thomas was the first starting White Sox first baseman in an All-Star contest since Dick Allen in 1974.
- ◆ His 519-foot drive was the longest of the All-Star Game home run competition.

Historical Accomplishments

- ◆ His .729 slugging percentage (a club record) was the 14th best in baseball history and the highest since Ted Williams posted .731 in 1957.
- ◆ Became only the third player (four times) in baseball history to hit .300 with 20 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 walks and 100 runs scored in four straight seasons. Ted Williams (1946-49) and Lou Gehrig (1929-32, 1934-37) are the others to accomplish the feat.
- ◆ Is the fifth player (six times) to collect 100 walks and 100 RBI in four straight seasons. Lou Gehrig (1929-32, 34-38), Babe Ruth (1930-33), Ted Williams (1946-49) and Ralph Kiner (1948-51) are the others to accomplish the feat.
- ◆ Along with Cleveland's Albert Belle and Houston's Jeff Bagwell, became the first player to hit .350 or better with 30 or more home runs since Detroit's Norm Cash in 1961.
- ◆ Ranked among the league's Top 5 in 10 of 12 offensive categories, the only player since 1978 to accomplish that feat. In that span, George Brett (1985) and Dwight Evans (1984) are the only other players to rank among the Top 10 in 10 categories.
- ◆ Became the 12th player in major-league history to hit 30 home runs before the All-Star Break.

Thomas in White Sox History

- ◆ Posted the best batting average by a Sox player since Luke Appling's club-record .388 in 1936.
- ◆ Was the fastest player to 100 RBI (8/7, game number 110) in a season.
- ◆ Became the fastest Sox player to 20 (5/29, game number 46), 25 (6/20, game number 66), 30 (7/5, game number 80) and 35 (7/21, game number 94) home runs.
- ◆ Set Sox franchise records with a walk average of .214 and an average of .94 runs scored per game.
- ◆ Is in fourth place on the club's all-time home run list with 142.
- ◆ Tied Sherm Lollar for eighth place in franchise history with 525 walks.
- ◆ Tied a franchise record by homering in five consecutive games, a feat he accomplished twice this season (4/14-19 and 5/24-29).
- ◆ His 31 RBI in July tied for the second-highest monthly total by a Sox player since 1964.
- ◆ His 12 home run-performance in May and eight in April set Sox records (since 1964) and his .452 batting average in May was the best monthly performance since Pat Kelly hit .486 in April 1973.

HISTORY

HISTORY

Center fielder Lance Johnson is the first player in major-league history to lead his league in triples four consecutive seasons.

SIGNIFICANT DATES

- November 20, 1893* At a meeting held in the Grand Hotel Indianapolis, the Western League is formally organized. Charles Comiskey nominates Ban Johnson for president of the league. The Sioux City franchise is awarded to a local businessman named H. H. Drale. A year later Comiskey's contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs expires. At the behest of Ban Johnson, Charles Comiskey purchases the Sioux City team and moves it to St. Paul.
- October 11, 1899* The American League is christened in Chicago, amid rumors that the St. Paul club will transfer to the south side.
- March 21, 1900* An agreement is signed which lands the St. Paul Saints in Chicago.
- April 2, 1900* Playing as the Chicago team for the first time, the White Stockings defeat the University of Illinois, 10-9, in Champaign. Roy Patterson is the victor.
- April 21, 1900* The Chicago White Sox play their first game in a small wooden ballpark located at 39th and Princeton. The Sox lose to Milwaukee, 5-4.
- April 22, 1900* The Sox defeat the Brewers, 5-3, behind Roger Denzer for the club's first victory.
- September 12, 1900* The White Sox clinch the 1900 pennant by defeating the Cleveland Blues, 12-4, in Chicago.
- January 28, 1901* Meeting in closed door sessions in Chicago, the American League drafts a 140-game schedule and declares itself to be a second Major League.
- April 24, 1901* The first "official" American League game is played in Chicago with Roy Patterson defeating Cleveland, 8-2.
- September 21, 1901* Even though they lose in Philadelphia, the White Sox capture their second consecutive American League pennant. For the season they draw 354,350 fans to the tiny South Side grounds, nearly 150,000 more than their crosstown rivals. Chicago plays a team of AL All-Stars led by Nap Lajoie in the postseason "All-American Series." The Sox split the games.
- September 20, 1902* Nixey Callahan fires the first Sox no-hitter against the Detroit Tigers.
- June 9, 1903* The White Sox are incorporated under Illinois law with $5,000 capital.
- May 12, 1904* Ed Walsh makes his major-league debut in Philadelphia.
- June 5, 1904* Fielder Jones replaces Nixey Callahan as manager.
- October 2, 1904* Doc White's streak of 45 consecutive scoreless innings is snapped by the New York Highlanders in Chicago.
- August 23, 1906* The White Sox win their 19th successive game, downing the Washington Senators, 4-1, behind pitcher Roy Patterson.
- October 14, 1906* The Sox claim the only all-Chicago World Series, defeating the Cubs, 8-3, in the finale to win four of the six meetings.
- October 5, 1908* Ed Walsh wins his 40th game of the season, downing Detroit, 6-1. His win total remains a Chicago single-season record.
- January 19, 1909* Charles Comiskey purchases a tract of land near the corner of 35th and Shields from Roxanna Bowen, a descendant of former Chicago Mayor John Wentworth. Later that year, architect Zachary Taylor Davis is commissioned to design a spacious ballpark for the White Sox on the site.
- October 6, 1909* Davis submits his proposed ballpark design to Comiskey for approval.
- March 17, 1910* The cornerstone of Comiskey Park is laid on St. Patrick's Day.
- June 27, 1910* The Sox play for the last time at the 39th St. Grounds, losing to Cleveland, 7-2.
- July 1, 1910* Comiskey Park opens to a packed house but the Sox lose to St. Louis, 2-0.
- August 11, 1912* Hall-of-Fame catcher Ray Schalk makes his debut, collecting one single in three at-bats against Philadelphia.

White Sox Parks

New Comiskey Park: The new Comiskey Park opened on April 18, 1991, three years after the Illinois General Assembly passed legislation to build the park directly across the street from old Comiskey Park. A ground-breaking ceremony was held on May 7, 1989, with Mayor Richard M. Daley and Governor James Thompson in attendance. The new park features an exploding scoreboard, an old-time facade complete with arches and over 40,000 unobstructed-view seats. The new Comiskey Park attracted a club record 2,934,154 fans in its first year and drew rave reviews from the general public and baseball officials.

Old Comiskey Park: After nine years in the South Side Grounds, Charles Comiskey started construction on his new "Baseball Palace of the World" at the corner of 35th Street and Shields Avenue. White Sox Park opened on July 1, 1910, but soon became known as Comiskey Park. The new park was designed by architect Zachary Taylor Davis with help from Comiskey and pitcher Ed Walsh. Comiskey Park featured spacious dimensions (362 feet down each line and 420 feet to straight-away center field.). Before the 1927 season, the park was enclosed by a double-decked outfield grandstand. On August 14, 1939, the first night game in Chicago was played at Comiskey Park, with the Sox defeating the St. Louis Browns, 5-2. The first large center field scoreboard was built in 1950 and lasted until replaced by Bill Veeck's exploding version in 1960. In 1982, a new scoreboard, complete with color video board, was constructed along with new Golden Box seats, dugouts and a level of luxury sky suites. The White Sox played their final campaign at old Comiskey Park in 1990. The festive final weekend of the old stadium was capped by a 2-1 Sox victory over the Seattle Mariners in the final game on September 30, 1990.

39th Street Grounds: The first home of the Chicago White Sox was located at 39th Street and Princeton, four blocks south of the present Comiskey Park. The 39th Street Grounds served as the playing field of the Chicago Wanderers cricket team during the 1893 World's Fair. Charles Comiskey built a wooden grandstand on the site in 1900. The capacity of the tiny grandstand never exceeded 7,500. It served as the home of the White Sox until June 27, 1910 when the club vacated the park for Comiskey Park at 35th Street and Shields. The grounds were leased to John Schorling, a South Side saloon keeper who owned the American Giants Negro League team. The park served as the home of Chicago's Negro League teams until the park was demolished in the late 1940s to make way for a public housing project.

Hitting For The Cycle

Carlton Fisk was the last White Sox player to hit for the cycle when he became the third player in club history to accomplish the feat on May 16, 1984 vs. Kansas City. Ray Schalk was the first to do so on June 22, 1922 at Detroit. Jack Brohamer also hit for the cycle on September 24, 1977 at Seattle.

Denotes tied for American League lead

Consecutive 20-Win Seasons

Wilbur Wood holds the White Sox record with four consecutive 20-win seasons from 1971-74. Three other Sox pitchers, Nick Altrock (1904-06), Red Faber (1920-22) and Frank Owen (1904-06) reached 20 victories three consecutive years.

Consecutive Double Figure Victories

Doc White has posted the most consecutive seasons of double figure wins by a White Sox pitcher. White reached double figures nine consecutive seasons (1903-11). Ed Cicotte is second with eight (1913-1920).

Triple Plays

The last triple play turned by the White Sox came on June 15, 1986 at Seattle. With Neil Allen pitching, Alvin Davis walked to lead off the second inning. Jim Presley's ground ball to Greg Walker was fumbled for an error as Davis went to third. Designated hitter Ken Phelps hit a fly ball to right fielder Jerry Hairston. Hairston fired to catcher Carlton Fisk, who tagged Davis out at the plate. Fisk threw to second baseman Julio Cruz at second, nailing Presley who was trying to advance on the play.

Nellie Fox

In 1958, Nellie Fox struck out just 11 times in 623 at-bats (one every 56.6 at-bats), which is the best single-season strikeout ratio in White Sox history. Fox holds the major-league record for most seasons leading the league in fewest strikeouts (11, 1952-62). Fox, the first Sox player to win an American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1959, also holds the club record for consecutive games played (798).

Comiskey Park Attendance

The White Sox will top the 10 million mark in attendance at new Comiskey Park this season. The Sox attracted 9,893,799 fans during the ballpark's first four seasons.

Comiskey Park Marks

The Sox set two new Comiskey Park records in their 19-11 win over Minnesota on August 4, 1992. The 19 runs were the most by any team since the new park opened in 1991 as were the 30 combined runs.

MINOR LEAGUES

The Sounds' Ray Durham was named "Star of Stars" at the 1994 Class AAA All-Star Game in Nashville.

BROADCASTING

Broadcasts

Chicago White Sox games will be broadcast on five different television stations in 1995 as Major League Baseball begins its second season of coverage on The Baseball Network. WGN-TV will carry 43 White Sox games during the shortened season, along with the exhibition games against the Chicago Cubs on April 24 and April 25. SportsChannel Chicago will televise 88 games, ESPN two and The Baseball Network is scheduled to carry 10 Sox or other Major League games on either ABC (WLS-TV, Channel 7) or NBC (WMAQ-TV, Channel 5).

All 144 regular-season games will be broadcast on the White Sox Radio Network. For the second successive season, WIND (560 AM) Radio, Chicago, Ill., will provide Spanish-language broadcasts of every White Sox game in 1995.

Broadcasters

KEN HARRELSON

Harrelson begins his sixth season in the television booth as White Sox broadcaster, teaming with Tom Paciorek ... the Hawk's exuberant "YES" call has become familiar to Sox fans ... also served as a broadcaster last season on The Baseball Network, Major League Baseball's joint broadcasting venture with ABC and NBC ... Harrelson also worked in the broadcast booth for the Sox from 1982-85 ... he left the booth on 10/2/85 to become Sox executive vice president for baseball operations ... after serving as the club's general manager for one season, he resigned to resume his broadcasting career ... Harrelson served as play-by-play man for New York Yankees telecasts on SportsChannel New York in 1987-88 ... he teamed with Spencer Ross in 1987 and Bobby Murcer in 1988 ... he began his broadcasting career with Boston in 1975, where he worked until joining the White Sox in 1981 ... Harrelson played professional baseball for nine seasons, helping lead the Red Sox to the American League pennant in 1967 ... he enjoyed his finest season with Boston in 1968, when he belted 35 home runs with 109 RBI ... he also hit 30 home runs when he split the 1969 season between the Red Sox and Cleveland ... his trade to the Indians during the 1969 season caused such a furor in Boston that irate fans picketed Fenway Park ... he also played with Washington and Kansas City during his career, which ended with a broken leg in 1971 ... Harrelson appeared in 900 major-league games, batting .239 while amassing 131 home runs and 421 RBI ... credited with bringing the batting glove to baseball, he played golf professionally for a time before entering broadcasting ... he won the Celebrity Golf Invitational in North Falmouth, Mass. in 1994 and participated in the Michael Jordan/Ronald McDonald Children's Charities Celebrity Golf Classic ... Harrelson hosted the Hawk Open Charity golf outing on 8/29/94 that benefitted Chicago White Sox Charities ... he notched his first hole-in-one while golfing in Florida in January 1990 ... the 52-year-old Harrelson and his wife, Aris, have two children: daughter Krista (1/9/76) and son Casey (1/8/78) ... the family resides in Orlando, Fla.

TOM PACIOREK

MEDIA SERVICES

Admission: Enter Comiskey Park at Gate 4 (Administrative Offices). Television crews that park in the back of the ballpark enter through the loading dock. A Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card, or Chicago White Sox credential is necessary for admittance. Gate 4 and the clubhouses will be opened to the media 3 1/2 hours prior to game time.

Broadcast Booths: Take the elevator to Level 2, proceed to the Press Box, and take the stairs to the broadcast booths. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Reserved), Booth 2 (Home TV), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Home Radio), Booth 5 (Visiting Radio), Booth 6 (Hispanic Radio), Booth 7 (Reserved).

Clubhouses: Credentials must indicate clubhouse access. Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the White Sox clubhouse (third base side) is to the left and the visitors' clubhouse (first base side) is to the right. The White Sox clubhouse will be closed to the media 45 minutes prior to the game and between games of a doubleheader. Following the game, the White Sox clubhouse will be opened to the media no later than 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room, and players' lounge will be closed to the media at all times.

Credentials: Proper credentials must be displayed at all times. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies that have contacted the Public Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance. Media Will Call is located at Gate 4, Window 10, which opens two hours prior to game time.

Dark Rooms: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the dark rooms are to the right beyond the entrance to the Umpires' Clubhouse.

Elevators: Two elevators are located to the right after entrance at Gate 4. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the elevators. Take either elevator to Level 2 for the Press Box, Level 3 for the Bards Room (dining room), or Level 5 for the Upper Photo Boxes (Sections 524 and 540).

Field: Credentials must indicate field access. The field and dugouts must be cleared following pre-game batting practice and infield drills. Post-game live shots can be done from the warning track areas immediately in front of the first and third base photo boxes. However, postgame interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in Lots D-E or Lot G, as designated on the parking pass.

Photo Areas: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the third base photo box is to the left and the first base photo box is to the right. Upper photo boxes are also available near Sections 524 and 540. Still photographers are not allowed in the tunnel behind home plate or in the clubhouses, without special permission.

Press Box: Take the elevator to Level 2. The Press Box contains 120 seats, a work room, telephones for credit card calls and a dining area. No food or drink may be taken from the Press Box.

Television Minicam Crews: WBBM (2), WMAQ (5), WLS (7), WGN (9), WFLD (32), ChicagoLand Television and SportsChannel will be allowed to park two vehicles each at the rear of the ballpark near the Players' Lot (corner of 35th Street and Wentworth Avenue). Crews parking in this area enter the stadium with their equipment via the loading dock. Access to the field is via the first and third base photo boxes off the service tunnel. Access to the photo boxes on the upper concourse is via the freight elevator in the left field corner of the stadium.

Pre-game interviews must be done on the field. No game action can be shown during a live shot. Use of lights in the stadium during the game is prohibited. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the clubhouses. Following the game, interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Roving through the stands and concourses is prohibited. Likewise, field level access during the game is limited to the first and third base photo boxes.
